Macedonia, Ohio – AGS Custom Graphics (AGS) named Printer of Record for Cleveland Museum of Natural History (CMNH)

Under the arrangement, AGS will serve as the institution's sole source print vendor, as well as technical consultant, helping CMNH achieve marketing efficiencies through the utilization of relevant direct mail and web-to-print technology. AGSCG will partner with CMNH to help increase donor participation and realize their membership goals.

"We are very fortunate to have a strong relationship with CMNH. We are excited to support them with our print and technology expertise as they strive to be the most comprehensive and progressive institutions in the country", stated David Margiotta, President of AGS Custom Graphics.

About The Cleveland Museum of Natural History

The Cleveland Museum of Natural History, incorporated in 1920, is one of the finest institutions of its kind in North America. It is noted for its collections, research, educational programs and exhibits. The Museum's collections encompass more than 5 million artifacts and specimens, and research of global significance focuses on 11 natural science disciplines. The Museum actively conserves biological diversity through the protection of more than 6,600 acres of natural areas. It promotes science and health education with local programs and distance learning that extends across the globe. Its GreenCityBlueLake Institute is a center of thought and practice for the design of green and sustainable cities. www.cmnh.org
